

TRAININGS TO SUPPORT REFUGEES, PROVIDED BY THE IRISH PSYCHO-SOCIAL ONCOLOGY NETWORK (IPSON)

Psychological First Aid

Friday, May 6th from 1-2pm, delivered by Kelly McBride, International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, Denmark

This training is appropriate for any adult, both professionals and non-professionals. We welcome anyone in IPSON or the general community to attend. The training will be focused on supporting Ukrainian refugees, but the learning can be generalised to any person who has endured trauma.

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

Trauma Informed Medical Care 101

Friday, May 20th at 1-2pm,
delivered by Dr. Meghan Marsac, University of Kentucky, USA

This training is most appropriate for professionals working in medical settings or with medical patients. The training will be focused on Ukrainian refugees coping with cancer, but the learning can be generalised to any patient who has endured trauma.

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

Psychological First Aid

Wednesday, May 25th from 10am – 4pm, delivered by Kelly McBride, International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, Denmark

This full-day training will be more in-depth. Attendees are not required to have attended the previous PFA training session. The training is appropriate for any adult, both professionals and non-professionals. We welcome anyone in IPSON or the general community to attend. The training will be focused on supporting Ukrainian refugees, but the learning can be generalised to any person who has endured trauma.

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

